PERSONAL PROJECTS

Website like YouTube Using HTML,CSS,JS
(12/2021 - 12/2021)

- Built this project to test my knowledge on embedding images and videos in a webpage.
- Video Sharing Website \(anandjaiswal1309.github.io\)

Music Player with the help of bootstrap and Django
(01/2022 - 01/2022)

- As streaming becomes more popular, online media players have become essential for consuming media on the internet. Music players allow you to listen to music in any browser and have many of the same features as an offline music player.

Fitness Webpage (02/2022 - 02/2022)

- I created a complete fitness/gym webpage from the scratch. There are no libraries or frameworks used; just plain HTML, CSS, and a little JavaScript.
- <https://anandjaiswal1309.github.io/GYM/>

Gaming Website (03/2022 - 04/2022)

- This is the website where you can get free games.
- <https://anandjaiswal1309.github.io/Gaming/>

Virtual Assistant using Python (10/2020 - 12/2020)

- This project can perform a variety of tasks by using the user's voice, as well as by texting commands. It is designed to make people's lives easier.
